

Trustee for Charitable Trusts

Objectives

You wish to set aside some of your assets for charitable purposes either while you are still around or after you have passed on but need to address some questions in your mind:

You want to ensure that your wishes would be followed?

You wish to appoint a Trustworthy person who can execute your instructions by determining which charities your assets will be distributed to.

You wish to make a periodical donation and want to appoint the right person to perform these tasks taking into account the time, perpetuity and expertise required.

You wish to leave alternative instructions should the charity organization which you intend to benefit has closed down.

The Solution

Create a Charitable Trust with Rockwills Trustee Berhad where we provide the answers to the above concerns by ensuring a smooth administration on the Trust Fund itself.

Benefits of a Charitable Trust

1. Ensures your intentions pertaining to the charitable distribution are adhered to.
2. Ensures continuity of distribution to other charitable organizations if the appointed charitable organization has closed down.
3. Ensures the monies in the Trust Fund is well managed to ensure there is continuous income to distribute the funds to the charitable bodies.
